Title insurance firm opens Stafford office

by Cathy Jett

Kensington Vanguard National Land Services has opened an office at 9 Kingsland Dr., Suite 109, in Stafford County.

Alicia Thompson, who has more than 18 years of business development and management experience in the title industry, will be the manager. She began her career with LandAmerica Commonwealth.

Kensington Vanguard National Land Services is one of the largest independent full-service national title insurance and settlement agencies in the United States. The Stafford office is one of two that it recently opened in Virginia. The other is in Woodbridge.
